

On Wednesday evening, October 26th at 7 P.M. in the Robert Nyman Auditorium at Hanover High School, Hanover Public Schools will be sponsoring an evening for parents with nationally recognized internet safety and technology expert, Katie LeClerc. Katie is a former intelligence analyst for the Massachusetts state police and former Director of Internet Safety. The presentation for parents will include such topics as dangers of IM, text messaging, sexting/child pornography, and social networking and bad guys. We invite you to send this invitation out to your parents. If they wish to learn more about Katie, they can visit her website at www.klgreer.com