Name of Course: Latin I
Textbook: Latin for Americans Book 1
Ancillary Materials:Lingua latina, Wheelock's Latin, Oxford Latin Course, Latin is Fun, First Latin, Latin Everywhere, Everyday, Latin for Beginners, Cambridge Latin Course, First Year Latin (Jenney), Conversational Latin for Oral Proficiency, Phenomenon of Language (Tabula Latina)
= material added beyond the textbook
1) Content 2) Culture 3) Comparisons 4) Connections 5) Community

Vocabulary	Verbs	Grammar	Culture/History	Games, Projects
Greetings Derivatives Numbers Colors Body Parts School/classroom Weather/seasons Clothing Days/Dates Family Members Expressions of Feelings Common Latin expressions used in English Idiomatic Expression Vocabulary from chapters 1-25 in Latin for Americans	Active/Linking Verbs Trans/Intrans Verbs Four conjugations, reg verbs, active voice: present, future imperfect, perfect Concept:principal parts + Stems Imperatives Negative Commands Passive Voice with present, imperfect, future Perfect Passive Participle As adjective Sum: present, future Perfect, imperfect Present Passive Infinitive Infinitive Object with certain verbs	Nouns and adjectives 1st, 2nd, 3rd declensions Five Cases and uses Vocative Conjunctions Parts of Speech Latin Word Order Parts of a sentence Prepositional Phrases Questions Apposition Substantives Adjective agreement Personal Pronouns Formation of Adverbs Possessive Adjectives	Mythology: major gods, Goddesses, heroes, Role in Art/Literature Daily Life: forum, home, Baths, food/meals, Gladiatorial shows. Roads/bridges/aqueducts Slavery, education Mt. Vesuvius/Pompeii Map Work Year long focus on Roman history, important events, people from founding of Rome to the beginning of the Empire	Bulla ceremony Posters: Roman forum, Myths in Advertisements Family Tree Ferite Moscas Bingo Latin Bee Simonus Dicit Museum of Fine Arts Boston Public Library RISD Museum Holiday: Halloween (Hecate) Saturnalia Luperclalia/Val Day Ides/March